

The “146 Launch”

Saturday 5th March 2011

The Irish Traction Group is pleased to present an opportunity to join us for the first passenger working in preservation of “141” Class No. 146 on Saturday 5th March 2011, at the Downpatrick & County Down Railway.

Proposed Locomotives (subject to availability) will be 146, A39, “G” Class and Railbus RB3. The ITG acknowledges the co-operation of the DCDR in making this event possible.

A special road coach connection departs Dublin (Connolly Station) at 09:00 and Dublin Airport (Coach Park) at 09:30. Return from Downpatrick at 16:30, arrival in Dublin Airport (Coach Park) approximately 18:30 and Connolly Station approximately 19:00.

Fares: For combined special coach from Dublin and ticket for rail travel at Downpatrick - €25 (Republic of Ireland bookings) or £22 (U.K. bookings)
Downpatrick only ticket - €9 (Republic of Ireland bookings) or £7 (U.K. bookings). (You will be expected to make your own way to and from Downpatrick if taking this option).
